

ABC OF ENDANGERED

Introduction

Welcome to ABC of Endangered, a compilation that highlights the artistic proficiency and genuine concern of our Year 8 Visual Arts students. In the following pages are meticulously crafted drawings employing a variety of lead pencils, each depicting endangered animals.

Influenced by Lucienne Rickard, these young artists have channeled their passion and commitment into raising awareness about the fragile existence of many endangered species in our world.

We believe that you will not only gain an appreciation for the aesthetic allure of wildlife but also foster empathy for their struggle for survival. This publication seeks to go beyond a mere display of talent; instead, it functions as a call to action, prompting readers to contemplate the implications of their choices and engage actively in initiatives that contribute to the improvement of our world, benefiting both humanity and the diverse range of creatures that share our planet.

White powder arcs across the sky
Organic brakes screeching to a halt
Three black points pause, surveying the landscape
Silence
The area is empty and plain
An ear twitches
Nothing has changed
The three dots push free of the horizon
A chunk of the white is pulled along
As soon as it escapes, it dives back in,
Burying itself in the flakes
Silence
The area is empty and plain
They break free once more
Red staining the once monochromatic
landscape.

One step closer,
Just a touch lower
Long grasses,
Improve my chances
Rustles up ahead,
I quieten my tread
A head cocks,
Birds fly off in flocks
My hunter eyes,
See through the disguise
My ear twitches,
My jaw itches
Wait only once...
Then pounce!
My prey separates my jaws,
It's blood decorates my paws
Another great hunt,
So I turn and exeunt.

All my companions are slowly leaving
One at a time
Never seen again
And I'm the last left
Soon to disappear
And join the rest
